

Students are required to take all of the Compulsory Programme Required Courses (4 credit hours) plus a minimum of another 8 credit hours of elective course from elsewhere in the programme.

Programme Description

As part of their academic training, postgraduate students are expected to participate in the teaching of undergraduates in the following ways:

- Facilitating workshops, seminars, and tutorial sessions
- Assisting problem-based learning discussion groups
- Demonstration/supervision of laboratory practical work
- Assisting lecturers in the preparation of teaching material

Postgraduate students are also encouraged to participate in Kulliyah research projects as co-researchers, research assistants (RA), or research officers (RO), use Kulliyah research facilities as approved by the Kulliyah, and write and publish research reports as approved by the Kulliyah. In 2007, the postgraduate students launched their society known as Postgraduate Students Society Kuantan Campus (PGSS Kuantan Campus) which comprise of students from all the Kulliyah in the Kuantan Campus.
