FOREWORD

DEPUTY RECTOR (STUDENT DEVELOPMENT AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT)

Assalamualaikum wrt. wbt.

The IIUM aims at revitalizing the leading role of the Muslim Ummah in the world. This requires a new generation of Muslims who are fully equipped with all the necessary skills to achieve success, education and life-long training is the critical factor here.

In this University, education, both formal and informal, aims at producing students ingrained with the quality of Comprehensive Excellence, the attributes of Integration, Islamisation and Internationalisation (IIICE). IIUM also in line with the aspiration of Falsafah Pendidikan Kebangsaan in producing Holistic, Entrepreneurial and Balanced Graduates with balanced emotional quality, intellectual quality, spiritual quality and physical quality.

I hope that you will give your best efforts not only to appreciate but also, most importantly, to uphold the vision and mission of IIUM. The whole community of the University is centered upon this vision and mission. Comprehensive excellence requires a sincere appreciation of this culture and subsequently to be practically manifested in one’s day-to-day affairs. Any given society blessed with this culture has the necessary ingredients to lead the world and champion any global agenda. At this point of taking the first step toward greater success. IIUM LOGO

The logo represents the aspirations, ideals and objectives of the International Islamic University Malaysia. It is made up of four main parts:

i. The symbol of Al-Qur’an
ii. The symbol of Ka’abah
iii. The eight domes pointing in eight directions
iv. The eight outer domes

The symbol of Al-Qur’an

This represents the highest source of knowledge, namely the revelation (wahyu) of Allah s.w.t. which guides and inspires the pursuit of knowledge in the universe.

The central position of the symbol implies that the University upholds the supremacy of Allah’s knowledge, wisdom and words above all human knowledge.

The symbol of Ka’abah

The symbol represents:

a) The unity of knowledge and the unity of mankind which Islam propagates.

b) The principle of tawhid (The Oneness of God) as the foundation of Muslim personality, culture and society that the University strives to promote through the dissemination of tawhid-based disciplines and

c) The concept of ‘ibadah (service and worship of Allah s.w.t) as the fundamental rationale of human existence and all pursuits of knowledge in conformity with Allah’s guidance and shari’ah.

The Eight Domes Pointing in Eight Directions

They represent the different branches of human knowledge and academic disciplines in the University which spring from the same source of tawhid and the basis of revelation.

In term of specialisation, they point in different directions but the various academic principles are in fact united by the principles of ‘ibadah and subservience to the ‘aqidah (belief), shari’ah (laws) and akhlaq (ethics in Islam). These common principles are represented by the colour of gold sprouting from the square of Ka’abah.

The Eight Outer Domes

The domes represent the various Islamic development efforts by man based on the knowledge and disciplines, which are grounded in the common foundation of tawhid. The development of social life, culture and civilization must therefore be inspired by divine guidance and true knowledge.
