ECE 1322 Programming for Engineers (3)

Introduction to C programming, basic data types, basic control structures; object-oriented programming, classes, constructors and destructors, derived class and inheritance, pointers; engineering applications and introduction to Matlab software. Not for Computer engineering majors.