LE 4000    English For Academic Purposes    (3)

This course is intended for undergraduate students who are required to pursue their degree studies in English. The course focuses primarily on the literacy skills of research - reading and writing with secondary focus on listening and speaking skills. Grammar and vocabulary skills are integrated in all steps.