This course emphasizes on the history of Malay language which includes ancient, classical and modern versions. Focus is also given to the function and the role of Malay language including grammatical errors, spelling text writing aspects as well as academic writing.