

Prof. Dato' TPr. Dr. Mansor Ibrahim
Kulliyyah of Architecture and Environmental Design
IIUM.

Academic/Professional Qualifications

Ph.D Land Resource (Wisconsin), MSc. URP (Wisconsin),
Cert. Dev. Planning (DPU-UCL), Dip.TP (Auckland), B.A. Hons
(Applied Econ.)(UKM)

Expertise

Resource and Environmental Planning (Urban and Regional, EIA, Tourism, Solid Waste, GIS Application)

Research Interests

Urban and regional land use planning, EIA, urban heritage and tourism planning, solid waste management, GIS application, low-cost housing, local government and public policy analysis, reading habits, virtual reality application, quality of life and social policy, urban noise and air pollution, campus planning, technology park planning, accessed audit in universal design.

Email: profmansor@iium.edu.my/manchotbrahim@gmail.com

Contact No: 03-6196 5282/5281

---

Profile (Sample)

Mansor Ibrahim born in 1950, is a Professor and Professional Planner and was a former Dean at the Kulliyyah of Architecture and Environmental Design, International Islamic University Malaysia. Before joining IIUM in 2001, he was a Deputy Dean (Research and Publication) and Head of Department at the University Technology Malaysia.

His research and consulting experiences in related areas are more than 130 topics, presenting papers more than 100 and producing books, chapters in books and manuscripts more than 50 titles. Served as editor in various local and international journals related to the built environment. Amongst others: Chief Editor for the Planning Malaysia Journal of the Malaysian Institute of Planners since 2010 and editor for Habitat International. He affiliated with various professional bodies, local and international, as a member and office bearers such as Vice President and Council Member of the Malaysian Institute of Planners since 2000, Affiliate Member of New Zealand Planning Institute (NZPI) since 1977, Member of International Association for Impact Assessment (IAIA), UNEP Member – Inter. Environmental Tech. Center (Osaka, Japan), Member EIA/EHIA Network (WHO), Member of Board of Town Planners, Reg. EIA Consultant (DOE I 00036), Reg. EIA Consultant (NREB, S'wak), Member of Malaysian Nature Society, and Member of International Council of Museums (ICOM). As a lecturer, he taught and teaches in many courses related to planning and environmental management like the Principle of Planning, Economic Geography, Urban Geography, Malaysian Economics, Principle Economics, Planning Techniques, Environmental Science, Public Administration and Finance, Social and Community Planning, Research Methodology, Comparative Planning, Planning Theory and Techniques, Park Development and Recreation Planning, Transport and Environment, Resource and Environmental Planning, Environmental Impact Analysis and Principle of Tourism. He supervised more than 50 post-graduate students and assumed as the external examiners to local and international universities of more than 100 students.

In 1998, he got a Consolation Award for Original Book Publication, Consultancy Excellent Group Award (1999), Consultancy Excellent Group Award (2001) at Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, Research Excellent Group Award - Kulliyah Level, Quality Day 2005, IIUM. He also bagged not less than 10 research awards at IIUM Research Exhibition. He got his Dato'ship (D.S.D.K) from the Sultan of Kedah in 2011 in recognition of his contribution in many iconic research, consultancy and publication about Kedah in particular and Malaysia in general.