

NOOR SUZILAWATI BINTI RABE

Kulliyah of Architecture and Environmental Design

Academic/Professional Qualification

Doctor of Philosophy in Built Environment (P_AED), (April 2011- present),
Msc. In Built Environment (IIUM), B.(Hons)URP(IIUM)

Expertise

Urban and Regional Planning, Social Planning

Research Interest

Urban and Regional Planning, Regional Studies and development,
Planning Laws

Email: suzilawati@iium.edu.my

Contact No.: 03-6196 6214/5281
017-3985053

Profile

She is a lecturer in Department Urban and Regional Planning at Kulliyah of Architecture and Environmental Design (KAED), International Islamic University Malaysia. She began her career as an academic trainee started in 2010, before continue her study in International Islamic University Malaysia since 2011. Currently, she is waiting for her PhD viva-voce on the study on the study of regional economic planning.

She is a graduate member of Malaysian Institute of Planning (MIP) and had experience involving in several research project including the study of employment issues in Perak with the Institute of Darul Ridzuan Perak (2013), the study on action plan of full employment for Perak - action, strategies, programme & projects with Institute of Darul Ridzuan Perak (2013) and also become a research assistant for the study on settlement in Asia (Malaysia-Singapore-Republic Of Korea-Japan) survey (collaboration between IIUM and Shogakuen University of Japan) (2008).

On skills and expertise, she is able to demonstrate several software programme including Statistical Package for the Social Sciences (SPSS), SPSS AMOS 19 – Advanced, NVivo Basic 10, Adobe Photoshop and AutoCAD Design Application.