
Asst. Prof. Dr. Noraini Ahmad

Kulliyah of Architecture and Environmental Design

Academic/Professional Qualification

PhD Specialism in Built Env. (UiTM), MA Design Edu. (UiTM), B.(Hons) Interior Arch. (Kent)
Dip. in Interior Des. (UiTM), Cert. Executive in Museology (IIUM)

Expertise

Architectural Interior, Museum Design and Exhibition

Research Interest

Daylighting, Green & Sustainability, Environmental Responsive Architecture, Comfort and Indoor Environmental Quality

Email: nurrin@iium.edu.my

Contact No.: 03-6196 5251 extn.: 3785 (KAED)
03-6196 6290 (IIUM Gallery)

Profile

Dr. Noraini has qualifications in interior design, design education and Museology. She is currently deputy director of the Office of Corporate, Communication and Marketing (OCCM) where she is head of the IIUM Gallery. She is also an assistant professor at Kulliyah of Architecture and Environmental Design (KAED), She specializes in built environment.

Dr. Noraini's research interests include sustainability, green building materials, comfort and indoor environmental quality, daylight simulation, architectural interior design issues, and museum planning and development.

Dr. Noraini is a registered Interior Designer with Malaysian Board of Architects. She is a member of Malaysian Institute of Interior Designer (MIID). She is also a working Sub-Committee for Green Building Index (GBI) Assessment Criteria for Interior Design (Energy Efficiency), MIID and the KBU International College Examiner Board. Previously, she has been a member of Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) and a corporate member of Malaysia Society of Interior Design.