

IIUM Environmental Sustainability Award 2020

This award recognises outstanding achievement in promoting the environment sustainability with initiatives to reduce waste, advance energy efficiency, reduce water consumption, and create safety and healthy environment.

What the We Looking for?

- Leadership – a clearly defined and comprehensive organisation-wide environmental programme which has been successfully implemented and had a significant impact with results over a sustained period of time).
- Operational excellent and collaboration – the programme is well thought out, executed and evaluated across the business.
- Impact and outcomes – demonstrable results have been achieved over a sustained period and the impact is measured.

Submission Criteria :

1. K/C/D/I/O statement maximum 150 words* (A short statement about the kulliyah organization/centre/department/organisation)
2. Environmental Sustainability statement maximum 150 words* (Briefly tell us why you should win this award)
3. Award statements (Award statement should concisely outline how K/C/D/I/O has implement the sustainability practices which include the criteria below
 - a. Energy efficiency
 - b. Zero Waste
 - c. Water Conservation
 - d. Safety and Healthy environment and other sustainability related criteria

All the criteria above must include the three indicator: leadership, operational excellent (engagement) and impact and outcomes.

Key indicator:

Leadership Describe your environmental sustainability programme. (500 words) – 30 points	Areas to cover: Describe the various components of your organisation's environmental sustainability programme: – What i.e. energy efficiency programme do you have in place towards energy saving? – What i.e. waste reduction and management programme do you have in place with the aim of reducing, refusing, recycling and recovering as much as possible?
---	---

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – How are staff, your leader and stakeholders involved in these initiatives? – How are you educating and engaging with your staff and community in the initiatives? – When were your programmes introduced and how have they evolved? – How are they integrated throughout the your organisation?
Operational excellence and collaboration The programme is well thought out, executed and evaluated. (500 words) – 20 points	Areas to cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Who was responsible for developing your programmes? – Who is responsible for their ongoing management and implementation? – Do you collaborate with third party? Who? – Is the programme based on an international standard, e.g. ISO14001, Enviro-Mark, ISO 14064 or carbonZero and CEMARS – Are there documented plans with timelines, KPIs, budget, communication plans? – Is the programme independently audited and continually improved, and if so, by whom?
Impact and outcomes What results were achieved? (500 words) – 50 points	Areas to cover: – What are the environmental, social, and economic impacts of these programmes? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – What are the tangible and quantifiable results achieved over a sustained period of time (provide before and after metrics where relevant)? – What benefits were achieved beyond what was expected?