

NOMINATION FOR BEST TEACHING AWARDS 2022 (AWARDS UNDER CENTRE FOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT) GUIDELINES

Introduction:

Teaching in higher education institutions requires not only passion and interest, but also creativity and innovation. Such a process is critical to ensure effective and meaningful teaching experience among students from various walks of life. Centre of Professional Development (CPD) is aware of the many innovations that IIUM staff had incorporated to the day-to-day teaching and learning activities on campus. These innovations are surely important to be showcased to the larger IIUM community. We believe that such developments would inspire not only academics within the Kulliyah, but also all other staff and students as well.

Hence, to facilitate and acknowledge the efforts that the staff had dedicated to the improvement of teaching and learning in IIUM, CPD is proud to announce the 'IIUM Best Teaching Award' to be held in 2022 as part of the university initiative. This award is the platform for all academic staff to showcase the effort, talent and creativity in their teaching techniques, and also for the university to provide recognition to the academicians that spent extra miles and implement their initiatives towards quality teaching and learning as well as helping to produce quality graduates. Through this platform, we believe it is the best avenue to identify the academic staff who can bring IIUM to another level of contribution in our education system, particularly as part of our initiative to support SDG4: Quality Education.
